

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Director and Professor

School of Criminology and Criminal Justice

Florida Atlantic University | Boca Raton Campus

The Florida Atlantic University (FAU) School of Criminology and Criminal Justice (SCCJ) invites applications for the position of School Director to begin July 2023 on the Boca Raton campus. The Director is appointed by the Dean of the College of Social Work and Criminal Justice and is responsible for establishing the academic priorities and setting intellectual standards for the SCCJ. The Director will be visionary and aspirational about the School's future, cultivating and enhancing the scholarly excellence of the SCCJ. Additionally, they will oversee all the SCCJ's programs, maintain and expand community partnerships, promote discipline engagement, and work in collaboration with faculty. Research and teaching areas of specialization are open. This position is a full-time, 12-month appointment and may include other duties, including campus activities, as assigned. A current rank of Professor is preferred. The SCCJ is comprised of fourteen tenure-track/tenured faculty and five full-time instructors, along with adjunct instructors, and a program assistant.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Doctoral degree in Criminology, Criminal Justice, or a related field
- Strong record of teaching and research in the discipline commensurate with rank of Full Professor preferred
- Experience providing administrative and intellectual leadership
- Experience promoting a climate of collaboration, transparency, and shared governance
- Demonstrated commitment to working in and fostering a diverse faculty, staff and student environment

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

The ideal candidate will have demonstrated experience promoting a climate of collaboration, transparency, and shared governance, a record of success in sponsored research, and the ability to effectively communicate within the School, College, University, and broader community. Additionally, an ambitious approach to enhancing school programming and resources, establishing partnerships with donors and other external organizations, being a visible and active representative of our School and College in South Florida and beyond, and mentoring junior and mid-career faculty is expected.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

When completing the online application, please upload all required documentation noted here: a curriculum vita, an educational leadership statement, names and contact info for three professional references, and a cover letter that describes: specific interest in the position; knowledge, skills and abilities related to the position; educational leadership philosophy statement; experience working directly with people from diverse racial, ethnic, and socioeconomic backgrounds; and scholarly activities. Salary for this position is competitive and commensurate with experience. Review of applications begins January 23, 2023.

HELPFUL LINKS

- Scan QR code for the detailed position announcement and application portal, or go to fau.edu/jobs/
- Learn more about our College at fau.edu/sw-cj
- Email inquiries to Dr. Seth Fallik (sfallik@fau.edu) or Dr. Mara Schiff (mschiff@fau.edu)

