

24nd Annual Conference of the European Society of Criminology

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS
Criminalisation of activism

We are planning to submit a pre-arranged panel on Criminalisation of activism to the 24nd Annual Conference of the European Society of Criminology. A non-exclusive list of topics that we aim to discuss include the following:

- criminological perspectives on the topic, including historical criminology, indigenous studies, gender studies, critical criminology, southern criminology and green criminology
- similarities but also the differences between criminalization of activism in the Global South and the Global North
- geopolitical considerations underlying the criminalisation of activism
- the long-durée view on the topic as well as the particularities of the present
- resistance to criminalization
- the specificities of the criminalisation of environmental protest.

If you are interested in being part of this panel, please send an abstract between 150-250 words by 28 February 2024 to valeriaveghweis@derecho.uba.ar, rossella.selmmini@unibo.it and a.dironco@essex.ac.uk. Submissions should include a title, abstract, and the author's name and affiliation. If possible, contact us as soon as possible to express your interest. Please note this is an in-person conference.
