

The second annual conference of the Cost Action Globalization, Illicit Trade, Sustainability, and Security (GLITSS)

will take place on May 16 in Sarajevo, Bosnia. GLITSS is a network of over 200 experts from 45 countries who investigate the causes, consequences, and responses to illicit trade practices.

The second annual GLITSS conference is on

“The unseen and far-reaching consequences of Illicit Trade in times of war and beyond.”

The conference will focus on the complex interplay between illicit trade and its multifaceted threats to security, safety, and sustainability. You can check the schedule of the program here: link.

The conference is a unique event that brings together scholars from various disciplines to form a European-wide forum to discuss illicit trade practices, challenges, and solutions. If you would like to attend (free of charge), you can register here: link.

More information about the GLITSS Action and its activities can be found on www.glitss.eu.
