

Confederation of European Probation

Interactive European map of probation education and training institution contacts

The CEP is pleased to inform its members that a new dedicated section has been developed on the CEP website featuring an interactive map of Europe.

This map identifies the institution responsible for the education and training of probation officers in each country and provides the corresponding contact details. This initiative responds to the mandate of the CEP Expert Network on Education and Training in Probation and constitutes a concrete outcome of the network's work during the last period.

Read more